若沒有萬瑞庭音樂基金的慷慨支持，
我在紐約便無法盡情投入音樂培訓。
不要錯過這個海外進修的機會。

I would not have been able to fully experience my music studies in New York without the tremendous support from the Bernard van Zuiden Music Fund.
Don't miss this opportunity to study abroad.

Aim of the Fund

The Bernard van Zuiden Music Fund provides financial aid to enable young music talents from Hong Kong to pursue musical training abroad. Recipients are committed to return to Hong Kong immediately upon finishing their studies and to contribute their talent to the Hong Kong music field.

Background

The Fund was established in 1983, under a generous donation by Mr van Zuiden, a late Hong Kong resident and businessman who was very active in the Dutch community. The Trustees of the Fund are The Hong Kong Philharmonic Society Limited and the HSBC Trustee (Hong Kong) Limited.

Application Requirements

- Age 25 or under as of 31 August 2022
- Permanent Hong Kong resident of Chinese ethnicity, habitually resident in Hong Kong for not less than seven years
- Proof of enrolment in an overseas university/music conservatory in academic year 2022/23
- Advanced music studies including music performances, conducting, composition and other music related studies
- A commitment to return to Hong Kong immediately and thereafter serve in the music field after completion of study

Application Procedure

1. Scan the QR code to download the application form or download it from hkphil.org/bvz
