Maestro van Zweden, Musical America's Conductor of the Year for 2012, will succeed the outgoing Artistic Director and Chief Conductor, Edo de Waart.

"It is a tremendous step forward for the Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra to be joined by one of the world's most sought-after conductors. I am very excited about the upcoming season we are planning, and I believe there is a great future ahead of us."

Maestro Edo de Waart, current Artistic Director and Chief Conductor of the Orchestra, offered his congratulations and said, "I am very happy with the appointment of my fellow Dutchman Jaap van Zweden as my successor. He is a wonderful musician who I am sure will bring the Hong Kong Philharmonic to new heights. I wish him and the Orchestra all the best."

Michael MacLeod, Chief Executive of the Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra said, "Those who witnessed the four awe-inspiring concerts that Maestro van Zweden conducted last November know he is a musician of the highest calibre. Maestro van Zweden, Musical America's Conductor of the Year for 2012, will succeed the outgoing Artistic Director and Chief Conductor, Edo de Waart.

"It is a tremendous step forward for the Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra to be joined by one of the world's most sought-after conductors. I am very excited about the upcoming season we are planning, and I believe there is a great future ahead of us."

Maestro Edo de Waart, current Artistic Director and Chief Conductor of the Orchestra, offered his congratulations and said, "I am very happy with the appointment of my fellow Dutchman Jaap van Zweden as my successor. He is a wonderful musician who I am sure will bring the Hong Kong Philharmonic to new heights. I wish him and the Orchestra all the best."
